ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Work on the new postoffice building at Burlington is held up pending the adjustment of some matters between the contractors and the department. It is expected that work will be resumed next week.

Editor Charles T. Walter of the St. Johnsbury Republican has gone to Caledonia Springs in the hope of getting over an attack of rheumatism which has tenaciously clung to him since the cold weather.

Many violations of the curfew law have been noticed by the Burlington police of late, no arrests have been made. Each time the police have seen that the boys violating this clause of the city ordinance go directly home.

President Edward D. Eaton, of Beloit College, Beloit, Wis., has declined the call as pastor of the North Congregational church at St. Johnsbury. The Rev. Edward M. Chapman will preach the farewell sermon at this church Sunday evening September 3.

The citizens of St. Johnsbury are planning to tender a banquet to the five southern governors who are coming here the second day of the Caledonia county fair, September 20. Governor McLean and staff of New Hampshire and Governor Bell and staff of Vermont will be with the distinguished southerners on their trip.

The sum of $125 was stolen from the Braley farm in Roxbury last Friday by a young man who came there from Boston to work. Although it was missed that day, nothing was said to him and Saturday night he secured a team and was driven to this place, where it is thought he must have taken the train for no trace of him has been found since.

Ernest Dearing of South Randolph, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace N. L. Boyden, of Randolph, on a charge of arson for burning some unoccupied buildings belonging to Hiram Hanks. There was no dispute as to his burning the buildings, but some thought Dearing insane. He was held in $500 bail and not being able to furnish it was lodged in jail to await the action of the court.

The Prospect House at Vergennes has been sold to Dr. J. B. Powers of Boston, Mass., who has leased it for a term of years to George F. Kimball of New York city. Mr. Kimball takes possession of the property on September 1. Several changes will be made so that it will be closed till October 1. The hotel, when opened on October 1, will be known as the Hotel Lenox and will be conducted then as a first-class, up-to-date hotel and summer resort.

During Saturday 1,344 individual taxes were paid to the city treasurer of Burlington, that number 734 being poll taxes. These taxes brought a revenue of $41,000 into the city treasury and this was at once deposited in the bank. Since the taxes became due over $200,000 has been paid in, leaving a balance of less than $15,000 to be collected. Of this amount considerable is due from non-residents and that will be collected later. The remainder will be placed in the hands of the constable for collection.

The question of securing a more sanitary water supply for Burlington is still in the hands of the committee appointed to investigate the matter but something of a definite character is expected soon. The committee secured the services of Prof. M. N. Baker of the staff of The Engineering News, who is an expert on the subject of filtration, and he has secured all the necessary data in regard to the situation in Burlington. His report is expected at any time and as soon as it is received the committee will take some action.

Private Charles O'Brien, troop E, who was placed in the guard house at Fort Ethan Allen on Sunday by order of the secretary of war for fraudulent enlistment, will be tried for swearing falsely as to his age. He would easily pass for a man in his 23rd year and his parents who tried to have him discharged from the army, swear he is only 15. The proceedings that his parents began to have him taken from the army because he was a minor induced the secretary of war to act. His offense is a very serious one and carries a heavy punishment. A general court martial will air his case.

Despite the fact that a recent analysis of the water taken from the St. Albans water mains shows that the water is in its usual condition and is, therefore, considered as good water as any in the state under similar conditions, the taste and odor of the water for the past few days have been something more easily understood from contact than from a description, which would necessarily involve the use of some unpleasant sounding words. Many residents absolutely refuse to touch the water until after it has been boiled and the consumption of cold tea is increasing very rapidly. It is suggested by one of the older residents of the city that a thorough flushing of the pipes might do away with at least a part of the odor and taste.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alvord of Woonsocket, R. I., who are making an extensive pedestrian tour of this state and New Hampshire, stopped over Sunday at the Wadsworth house. They started on their long walk from Fitzwilliam, N. H., and after making across the state and entered Vermont at Windsor, where they climbed Ascutney mountain. They then walked to St. Johnsbury, where they were joined by Misses Marion and Dorothy Fairbanks, sisters of Mrs. Alvord, and continued their journey to Stowe. There the party made the ascent of Mt. Mansfield, from there went to Duxbury and climbed Camel's Hump. They reached Waitsfield on Saturday afternoon, having walked some 250 miles. Mr. and Mrs. Alvord have in recent years taken similar tours in England and France and other European countries but they "allow" that they have nowhere found finer scenery than in the "Green Mountain State."

Life Insurance Agents to Meet.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Vermont Association of Life Underwriters will be held Friday at Lake Bomoseen. The members and their wives will meet at the Barwell house in Rutland

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowing of a parasite of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newcomb's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 25c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Rickett & Wells, Special Agents.

at 11 o'clock in the morning and will take the 11:40 o'clock car for the lake. Dinner will be served at the Prospect house at 1 o'clock. H. C. Farrar, of Rutland, president of the association, will act as toastmaster. Following the dinner will come the business meeting, including the election of officers and an interesting program. The remainder of the time will be taken up with the discussion of any subject of interest to the association which may be suggested. Following the meeting the party will be given a steamer ride around the lake, returning to Rutland at 7:05 o'clock in the evening.

Will Experiment With Peat.

The Stamford Chemical company of Stamford, is preparing to try peat as a fuel and will make a thorough test, as it has with crude oil, coal and wood. It is first awaiting the trial of the peat by the Boston & Maine railroad. The supply is obtained near Lexington, Mass., and there is said to be sufficient to furnish fuel for Massachusetts railroads for 250 years.

Fiendish Suffering.

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers that eat away your skin. Wm. DeWitt of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for ulcers, sores and cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothe and heal cuts, burns and scalds. Price 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store.

Lost Hand While Trying to Board a Car.

George Tully of Rutland, who fell while trying to board a moving electric car at Fair Haven, his right hand being crushed so badly that it was amputated, is making a good recovery. The accident occurred at Griffith's flats. Tully signalled the car to stop and thinking the motorman would slow up, he made a jump for the running board, but slipped and fell, the wheels of the car passing over his right hand, almost severing it from the wrist. The car did not stop and the young man had to bind up the wound with his handkerchief which he tied with his teeth. Although weak from the loss of blood he had to walk nearly a mile to the nearest house. He was carried to the office of J. H. Carthy where the hand was amputated. Tully is now at the home of his uncle, James Tully at Fair Haven, where his sister, Mary A. Tully, is caring for him.
